

Making Change Challenge Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Money and Decimal Operations

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you've learned about making change and managing money.

1. What is the 'counting up' method used for?

- A. Calculating total cost
- B. Making change from a purchase
- C. Adding prices together

2. Knowing how to make change is not important for managing money.

- True False

3. Why is it important to know how to make change?

4. Change is the difference between what you pay and the ____ cost.

5. Which of the following is a benefit of being careful with math?

- A. It can lead to poverty
- B. It helps us spend more money
- C. It helps us be good stewards of our finances

6. The plans of the diligent lead to profit according to Proverbs 21:5.

- True False

7. What strategies did you use to calculate change during the BibleMouse Store Challenge?

8. Double-checking your ____ helps ensure you give the correct change.

9. How does math help us be responsible with money?

- A. It makes money disappear
- B. It helps us keep track of our spending
- C. It allows us to ignore expenses

10. Always double-checking your calculations is unnecessary when making change.

- True False

Answer Key

1. 1 2. False 3. It helps us understand how much money we have left after a purchase and ensures we receive the correct amount back. 4. total 5. It helps us be good stewards of our finances 6. True 7. I used the counting up method to find out how much change I should give back to the customer. 8. calculations 9. It helps us keep track of our spending 10. False