

Math Games Festival Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflecting on Our Year in Math

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our Math Games Festival lesson.

1. What new skill are you most proud of learning this year in math?

2. What is one of the objectives of the Math Games Festival?

- A. To memorize math facts
- B. To demonstrate problem-solving through games
- C. To take a math test

3. The Math Games Festival is a celebration of our learning in math.

True False

4. According to Proverbs 16:16, getting wisdom is better than ____

5. How can math help us understand God's world better?

6. During the festival, what should we remember to do?

- A. Complete our worksheets
- B. Have fun and support each other
- C. Compete against each other

7. We will rotate through the game stations in large groups.

True False

8. Each game station focuses on different ____ skills.

9. What makes learning math enjoyable for you?

10. What is the theme of our week for the Math Games Festival?

- A. Year-End Celebration and Reflection
- B. Math Competition
- C. Math Test Preparation

Answer Key

1. I am most proud of learning how to multiply larger numbers. 2. To demonstrate problem-solving through games 3. True 4. gold 5. Math can help us measure and analyze things in nature, like the height of trees or the distance between stars. 6. Have fun and support each other 7. False 8. math 9. I enjoy solving puzzles and playing games that make math fun. 10. Year-End Celebration and Reflection