

Rhythmic Creation Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Sixteenth Notes and Composition

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about sixteenth notes and rhythm composition.

1. What instruments are mentioned in Psalm 150 for praising God?

- A. Drums and flutes
- B. Trumpet and lute
- C. Piano and guitar

2. Creating rhythms is like telling a ____ through sound.

3. An 8-measure rhythm piece can use sixteenth notes.

- True False

4. What makes a rhythm interesting in your own words?

5. How many measures should your rhythm composition have?

- A. 4 measures
- B. 6 measures
- C. 8 measures

6. In our lesson, we learned to praise God with ____ and dancing.

7. Rhythm composition does not require creativity.

- True False

8. What was challenging about creating your rhythm?

9. Which of the following is a technique discussed in the lesson?

- A. Singing melodies
- B. Rhythm notation techniques
- C. Playing chords

10. We can create musical patterns just like God creates beautiful patterns in ____.

Answer Key

1. Trumpet and lute 2. story 3. True 4. A rhythm is interesting when it has different patterns and unexpected beats. 5. 8 measures 6. tambourines 7. False 8. I found it hard to keep track of the sixteenth notes and make them sound good together. 9. Rhythm notation techniques 10. nature