

Choral Skills: Singing in Parts

BibleMouse.com

Review of Vocal Blending and Teamwork

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about singing together in a choir.

1. What does 'blending' mean in music?

- A. Singing loudly
- B. Mixing voices harmoniously
- C. Singing alone

2. How do choir members listen to each other when singing?

3. Unity is not important when singing in a choir.

- True False

4. Singing together is like working together in ____ family.

5. What makes a good choir member?

- A. Practicing alone
- B. Listening and collaborating
- C. Singing the loudest

6. What did you learn about singing together in your choir?

7. Vocal blending can help make the overall sound of the choir better.

- True False

8. How is musical harmony like spiritual unity?

- A. Both require practice
- B. Both involve different parts working together
- C. Both are loud

9. 1 Corinthians 12:12 teaches us that many members make up one ____.

10. Why is patience important in a choir?

Answer Key

1. Mixing voices harmoniously 2. They pay attention to the other voices and adjust their singing to match the harmony. 3. False 4. God's 5. Listening and collaborating 6. I learned that blending our voices creates beautiful music and requires teamwork. 7. True 8. Both involve different parts working together 9. body 10. Patience helps us to listen to each other and improves our teamwork while singing.