

Intervals in Melody and Harmony Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Musical Intervals

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about musical intervals.

1. What is an interval in music?

2. What do different intervals create in music?

- A. Different instruments
- B. Different emotional feelings
- C. Different rhythms

3. Intervals are not important for understanding melodies.

True False

4. Intervals are the building blocks of ____ and harmony.

5. How do intervals help create musical meaning?

6. Which scripture encourages us to make a joyful noise?

- A. Psalm 98:4
- B. Psalm 100:1
- C. Psalm 23:1

7. Singing intervals accurately by ear is not important in music.

True False

8. Making joyful sounds in worship is connected to understanding musical ____.

9. What might you feel when you hear a happy interval?

- A. Sadness
- B. Joy
- C. Anger

10. Can you name an interval that might sound sad?

Answer Key

1. An interval is the distance between two musical notes. 2. Different emotional feelings 3. False 4. melody 5. Intervals can change the mood of a song, making it sound happy or sad. 6. Psalm 98:4 7. False 8. intervals 9. Joy 10. A minor third interval often sounds sad to listeners.