

Breath Control for Phrases

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Musical Techniques

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about breath control in music.

1. Why is breath control important in music?

- A. It helps create longer phrases
- B. It makes music louder
- C. It changes the notes played

2. What is one strategic breathing technique you can use to help extend musical phrases?

---

---

3. Breath control is not necessary for playing a musical instrument.

- True       False

4. Breath is the foundation of ____ expression.

5. What does circular breathing allow musicians to do?

- A. Play without stopping
- B. Make their instruments louder
- C. Play faster notes

6. How can you apply breath control techniques in your future performances?

---

---

---

7. Breath control can help improve patience and self-discipline in practice.

- True       False

8. What is one benefit of using breath control techniques?

- A. It helps you play longer phrases
- B. It makes your instrument sound different
- C. It allows you to play more notes

9. Psalm 150:3 encourages us to praise God with the sound of the ____ and harp.

10. Why might breath control be similar to speaking or singing?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. True   2. Circular breathing   3. False   4. musical   5. Play without stopping   6. I can practice breathing strategically to make my music sound smoother and more expressive.   7. True   8. It helps you play longer phrases   9. trumpet   10. Both require controlled breathing to maintain flow and clarity in the sound being produced.