

Advanced Recorder Techniques Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Performance and Self-Assessment

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about advanced recorder techniques and performance recording.

1. What is one objective of the lesson?

- A. To play the piano
- B. To demonstrate advanced recorder techniques
- C. To learn about music history

2. Why is recording ourselves helpful in improving our musical skills?

---

---

3. Self-evaluation is an important part of improving musical skills.

- True       False

4. Psalm 33:3 encourages us to play ____ with a loud shout.

5. What should you do after reviewing your performance piece?

- A. Record it
- B. Ignore it
- C. Play it without thinking

6. What are some ways you can improve your musical skills?

---

---

---

7. Constructive self-criticism is not helpful for improvement.

- True       False

8. When you evaluate your performance, you should look for ways to ____ your skills.

9. What does it mean to play skillfully?

- A. To play without any mistakes
- B. To play with confidence and good technique
- C. To play as fast as possible

10. What did you notice about your performance during the recording?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To demonstrate advanced recorder techniques   2. Recording ourselves helps us hear what we sound like and identify areas we can improve.   3. True   4. skillfully   5. Record it   6. I can practice regularly, listen to my recordings, and ask for feedback from others.   7. False   8. improve   9. To play with confidence and good technique   10. I noticed that I played some notes too softly and needed to focus on my breath control.