

Minor Key Sight-Singing Assessment Review

BibleMouse.com

Reflect on your learning and skills in music

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on your lesson about sight-singing in minor keys.

1. What is one of the objectives of today's lesson?

- A. To learn about major keys
- B. To demonstrate sight-singing skills in minor keys
- C. To play instruments

2. How do minor keys help us express different emotions in music?

3. Psalm 33:3 encourages us to sing to Him a new song and play ____ with a loud noise.

4. The lesson focused on sight-singing in major keys.

- True False

5. What did you learn about minor key melodies this week?

- A. They are always happy
- B. They can be challenging but expressive
- C. They are only used in classical music

6. What went well in your sight-singing assessment?

7. During the lesson, we reviewed solfege hand signs for ____ scales.

8. It is important to approach musical challenges with a calm and confident mindset.

- True False

9. What would you like to improve in your sight-singing skills?

- A. Nothing, I am perfect
- B. My pitch accuracy
- C. My ability to play instruments

10. Reflect on your personal musical growth. What can you do to continue improving?

Answer Key

1. To demonstrate sight-singing skills in minor keys 2. Minor keys often create a sad or mysterious feeling, allowing musicians to convey deeper emotions. 3. skillfully 4. False 5. They can be challenging but expressive 6. I felt confident and was able to hit the right notes consistently. 7. minor 8. True 9. My pitch accuracy 10. I can practice more often and try to sing in different styles.