

Composition Performance Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Your Musical Journey

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about composition and performance.

1. What did you learn about composition from this lesson? Please explain in a few sentences.

2. What is one way to praise God with music, according to Psalm 150?

- A. With a violin
- B. With loud cymbals
- C. With a guitar

3. The lesson encourages students to perform their original compositions confidently.

- True False

4. In our performance, we should explain our ____ choices and creative process.

5. How did your piece express your creativity? Provide examples of elements you used.

6. Which musical elements are important to review before a performance?

- A. Instruments and rhythm
- B. Costumes and lights
- C. Audience and venue

7. Discussing the story behind your composition is not necessary before performing.

- True False

8. We can praise God with various instruments, including the ____ and harp, as mentioned in Psalm 150.

9. What is a key objective of the composition performance?

- A. To show off skills
- B. To develop confidence in musical expression
- C. To compete with others

10. What makes your composition unique? Describe one special feature.

Answer Key

1. I learned that composition involves creating unique pieces of music using different elements. It's important to think about the emotions I want to express. 2. With loud cymbals 3. True 4. musical 5. My piece expressed creativity through the use of different instruments and rhythms. I chose a lively melody to convey happiness. 6. Instruments and rhythm 7. False 8. psaltery 9. To develop confidence in musical expression 10. My composition is unique because it combines different styles of music, like jazz and classical, which creates an interesting sound.