

Stage Presence and Etiquette Review

BibleMouse.com

Recital Readiness for Young Musicians

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about stage presence and performance etiquette.

1. What is one key aspect of a good stage entrance?

- A. Walking confidently
- B. Singing loudly
- C. Waving to the audience

2. Why is stage presence important for musicians?

3. Showing respect to the audience is not necessary during a performance.

- True False

4. We should bow to show ____ to our audience after performing.

5. What should you do when you walk onto the stage?

- A. Look at the floor
- B. Walk confidently and smile
- C. Run quickly

6. What does Colossians 3:23 teach us about our work and performances?

7. Proper bowing technique is important for showing appreciation to the audience.

- True False

8. To show respect to performers, we should practice good audience ____ and listen quietly.

9. How can we show respect to our audience?

- A. By talking during the performance
- B. By clapping only when it's over
- C. By listening quietly

10. What is one thing you learned about performing that you will apply in your next recital?

Answer Key

1. Walking confidently 2. It helps to make a strong impression and connect with the audience. 3. False 4. respect 5. Walk confidently and smile 6. It teaches us to work hard and do our best as if we are doing it for God. 7. True 8. etiquette 9. By listening quietly 10. I learned to walk confidently onto the stage and bow respectfully at the end.