

Modern Classical Music Review

BibleMouse.com

Exploring 20th Century Music Styles

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about modern classical music.

1. Which style of music is known for creating 'paintings' with sound?

- A. Atonality
- B. Impressionism
- C. Minimalism

2. What are some characteristics of atonality that make it different from traditional music?

3. Minimalism involves complex musical patterns that are constantly changing.

- True False

4. The composer associated with Impressionism is _____.

5. Which of the following composers is known for minimalist music?

- A. Debussy
- B. Schoenberg
- C. Reich

6. Why is it important to explore different musical styles like those from the 20th century?

7. Impressionism focuses on using a variety of instruments to create different sounds.

- True False

8. According to Psalm 33:3, we should sing to God a _____ song.

9. What is one common feature of minimalist music?

- A. Fast tempo
- B. Repetitive patterns
- C. Use of many instruments

10. Which musical style did you find most interesting, and why?

Answer Key

1. Impressionism 2. Atonality breaks traditional musical rules and does not follow a specific key. It can sound chaotic or random. 3. False 4. Debussy 5. Reich 6. Exploring different styles helps us appreciate creativity and innovation in music. It shows how musicians express themselves in new ways. 7. True 8. new 9. Repetitive patterns 10. I found impressionism interesting because it uses sounds to create images and feelings, making music very expressive.