

Musical Notation Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Music Theory and Praise

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about musical notation and how it relates to praising God through music.

1. What is the purpose of musical notation symbols?

- A. To decorate music sheets
- B. To help musicians communicate
- C. To make music harder to play

2. What was the most challenging musical symbol for you today? Explain why.

3. Understanding musical notation is only important for professional musicians.

- True False

4. We can praise God with musical instruments like the trumpet and ____ according to Psalm 150:3.

5. Which clef is commonly used for higher-pitched instruments?

- A. Bass clef
- B. Treble clef
- C. Alto clef

6. How can understanding notation help us worship through music?

7. Rhythm notation is not important in music performance.

- True False

8. The ____ notation indicates the duration of notes in music.

9. Why is precise notation important in music?

- A. It makes music look nice
- B. It helps musicians play together correctly
- C. It doesn't really matter

10. What was your favorite part of the Musical Notation Challenge game? Why?

Answer Key

1. To help musicians communicate 2. The treble clef was challenging because I mixed it up with the bass clef. 3. False 4. harp 5. Treble clef 6. Understanding notation helps us play music correctly, allowing us to express our praise to God more accurately. 7. False 8. rhythm 9. It helps musicians play together correctly 10. I enjoyed the scavenger hunt because it was fun to find symbols and work with my team.