

Intervals and Chords Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Music Theory

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about intervals and chords.

1. What are the two types of intervals we learned about?

- A. Major and minor
- B. Happy and sad
- C. Loud and soft

2. How can understanding music reflect God's creativity? Provide an example.

3. A major chord often sounds happy.

- True False

4. To create a basic triad, you need to know the ____ notes.

5. Which Psalm encourages us to play skillfully?

- A. Psalm 23
- B. Psalm 33
- C. Psalm 100

6. What did we learn about musical intervals today?

7. Minor intervals usually create a joyful feeling.

- True False

8. Harmonic relationships in music show God's ____ creation.

9. What makes a chord sound sad?

- A. The notes being played together
- B. The speed of the notes
- C. The volume of the notes

10. How do intervals create different musical feelings? Explain briefly.

Answer Key

1. Major and minor 2. Understanding music helps us appreciate the beauty in creation, like how different notes come together to create harmony. 3. True 4. three 5. Psalm 33 6. We learned that intervals can create different feelings in music, such as tension or resolution. 7. False 8. orderly 9. The notes being played together 10. Intervals create feelings by how far apart the notes are. For example, a small interval might feel calm, while a large interval can feel exciting.

