

Animal Adaptation Presentations Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Animal Adaptations and God's Design

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about animal adaptations during your presentations.

1. What is the main purpose of studying animal adaptations?

- A. To learn how to draw animals
- B. To understand how species survive
- C. To find new pets

2. Animal adaptations help species ____ in their environment.

3. How do animal adaptations show God's creative design?

---

---

4. Adaptations are only physical features of an animal.

- True     False

5. Which of the following is an example of an animal adaptation?

- A. A bird's ability to fly
- B. A fish's color
- C. A cat's purring

6. In Job 12:7-9, the animals are said to ____ you about God's creation.

7. What surprised you most about your animal's unique features during presentations?

---

---

8. God's wisdom is evident in the way animals adapt to their environments.

- True     False

9. What should students remember while presenting their findings about animal adaptations?

- A. To speak quickly
- B. To connect adaptations to survival strategies
- C. To only show pictures

10. What new thing did you learn from another student's presentation?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To understand how species survive    2. survive    3. Animal adaptations show God's creative design because they demonstrate how He has equipped each species with unique features that help them thrive in their environments.    4. False    5. A bird's ability to fly    6. teach    7. I was surprised to learn that my animal has special camouflage that helps it hide from predators.    8. True    9. To connect adaptations to survival strategies    10. I learned that some animals can change their color to blend in with their surroundings, which helps them avoid danger.