

Energy Conservation in Daily Life

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Our Responsibility to Care for Creation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about energy conservation.

1. What is one way we can save energy at home?

- A. Leaving lights on
- B. Using energy-efficient appliances
- C. Taking long showers

2. Why is it important to conserve energy?

3. Wasting energy shows respect for God's creation.

- True False

4. God put humans in the garden to ____ and keep it.

5. According to the lesson, what does stewardship mean?

- A. Taking care of resources
- B. Using resources wastefully
- C. Ignoring natural resources

6. How can small actions lead to energy conservation?

7. Energy comes from limited ____ that we must use wisely.

8. Saving energy is a way to honor God's creation.

- True False

9. What is one benefit of reducing energy consumption?

- A. Higher energy bills
- B. Better care for the environment
- C. Less time for family

10. What is a family energy audit, and why is it useful?

Answer Key

1. Using energy-efficient appliances 2. Conserving energy helps protect the environment and resources God created. 3. False 4. cultivate 5. Taking care of resources 6. Small actions, like turning off lights when not in use, can add up to big savings in energy consumption. 7. resources 8. True 9. Better care for the environment 10. A family energy audit is a way to check how much energy we use at home and find ways to save it, which helps us be better stewards.
