

Volcanoes: Mountains of Fire

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Volcanoes and God's Power

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about volcanoes.

1. What are the three main types of volcanoes?

- A. Shield, Composite, and Cinder Cone
- B. Mountain, Hill, and Volcano
- C. Active, Dormant, and Extinct

2. How do volcanoes form at tectonic plate boundaries?

3. Most volcanoes are found at tectonic plate boundaries.

- True False

4. God's power is demonstrated in geological processes like ____ and earthquakes.

5. Which type of volcano is typically broad and gently sloping?

- A. Cinder Cone
- B. Composite
- C. Shield

6. Why do some volcanoes erupt more often than others?

7. Cinder cone volcanoes are known for their tall and steep shape.

- True False

8. Major volcanic regions around the world include the ____ Ring of Fire.

9. What scripture shows God's power over natural geological forces?

- A. Genesis 1:1
- B. Job 37:3
- C. Psalm 104:5

10. How do volcanoes show God's creative power?

Answer Key

1. Shield, Composite, and Cinder Cone 2. Volcanoes form when tectonic plates move and create openings for magma to escape. 3. True 4. volcanoes 5. Shield 6. Some volcanoes have more active magma chambers, which causes them to erupt more frequently. 7. True 8. Pacific 9. Job 37:3 10. Volcanoes create new land and transform the earth, showing how powerful and creative God is.