

Shaping Earth's Surface Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Geological Evidence

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about Earth's geological history.

1. What do rock layers represent in Earth's history?

2. What can fossils tell us about the past?

- A. They show us current life
- B. They are the remains of past life
- C. They are just rocks

3. Rock layers form quickly over a short period of time.

- True False

4. Fossils are preserved remnants of ____ life.

5. Why is it important to study rock layers and fossils?

6. Which of the following shows different environmental conditions?

- A. Rock types
- B. Fossils
- C. Both rock types and fossils

7. God's creation involves patience and processes that take a long time.

- True False

8. Rock layers can be thought of as ____ in a book about Earth's history.

9. How might rock layers help us understand what happened long ago?

10. Who laid the foundation of the earth according to Job 38:4?

- A. Humans
- B. God
- C. Nature

Answer Key

1. Rock layers show the different times and events that have occurred on Earth, like pages in a history book. 2. They are the remains of past life 3. False 4. past 5. Studying them helps us understand how Earth has changed over time and God's design in creation. 6. Both rock types and fossils 7. True 8. pages 9. They can show us changes in the environment and what types of life existed during different periods. 10. God