

Natural Hazards Impact Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How Natural Events Affect Communities

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about natural hazards.

1. What is one way that God is described in Psalm 46:1? Why is this important during natural disasters?

2. What makes a natural event become a disaster?

- A. It affects a large number of people
- B. It is unpredictable
- C. It is caused by humans

3. Communities cannot prepare for natural hazards.

True False

4. Communities can develop ____ skills to be more resilient.

5. What surprised you about your case study on natural hazards? Please explain your thoughts.

6. How can communities prepare for natural hazards?

- A. By ignoring the risks
- B. By making plans and practicing drills
- C. By waiting until a disaster happens

7. Understanding local environmental risks is not important for communities.

True False

8. Psalm 46:1 reminds us that God is a very present help in ____

9. How might God help people during difficult times like natural disasters? Give an example.

10. What is one important topic discussed in the lesson about natural hazards?

- A. How to ignore natural disasters
- B. How to respond to different types of hazards
- C. How to create more disasters

Answer Key

1. God is described as our refuge and strength. This is important because it shows that He is there to help us in difficult times. 2. 0 3. False 4. problem-solving 5. I was surprised by how much damage a flood can cause and how important it is for communities to work together to recover. 6. 1 7. False 8. trouble 9. God might help by giving people strength and comfort, like how people can find hope in prayer during storms. 10. 1

