

Science Presentation Day Review

BibleMouse.com

Communicating Science

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about communicating scientific findings and presenting ideas clearly.

1. What is one key aspect of making a presentation interesting?

- A. Using funny jokes
- B. Speaking clearly and confidently
- C. Reading from notes

2. Why is eye contact important during a presentation?

3. Proverbs 15:23 teaches us the importance of giving an ____ answer.

4. It is not necessary to explain scientific concepts simply for the audience to understand.

- True False

5. What did you learn from presenting your scientific research?

6. What should you do to help your audience understand your research?

- A. Use complex language
- B. Explain concepts simply
- C. Skip over difficult parts

7. Being prepared to answer questions shows that you are ____ about your research.

8. Public speaking skills can only be developed when presenting in front of large groups.

- True False

9. What was the most challenging part of sharing your research?

10. What is one benefit of presenting your scientific findings?

- A. It makes you nervous
- B. It builds confidence
- C. It allows you to read more books

Answer Key

1. Speaking clearly and confidently 2. Eye contact helps the audience connect with the speaker and shows confidence. 3. apt 4. False 5. I learned how to communicate my findings better and gained confidence in speaking. 6. Explain concepts simply 7. knowledgeable 8. False 9. The most challenging part was answering questions from the audience because I wanted to give the best answers. 10. It builds confidence
