

Our Stewardship Calling

BibleMouse.com

Review Questions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about stewardship and caring for God's creation.

1. What does biblical stewardship mean in relation to caring for the environment?

2. According to Genesis 2:15, what was Adam's role in the Garden of Eden?

- A. To eat the fruit
- B. To cultivate and keep it
- C. To name the animals

3. Science does not play a role in environmental stewardship.

- True False

4. God created the world and gave humans the responsibility to care for ____.

5. How can scientific knowledge help us protect God's creation?

- A. By teaching us about ecosystems
- B. By making us smarter
- C. By allowing us to ignore it

6. List two ways we can be good stewards of the environment based on our lesson.

7. Our faith calls us to be responsible environmental caretakers.

- True False

8. Biblical stewardship is about responsible ____, not just conservation.

9. What did we learn about caring for God's creation?

- A. It is optional for Christians
- B. It is a responsibility given by God
- C. It is only for scientists

10. Why is it important for us to understand how ecosystems work?

Answer Key

1. Biblical stewardship means responsibly managing the resources God has given us and taking care of His creation. 2. To cultivate and keep it 3. False 4. it 5. By teaching us about ecosystems 6. We can recycle materials and plant trees to improve our local environment. 7. True 8. management 9. It is a responsibility given by God 10. Understanding ecosystems helps us see how our actions affect the environment and guides us in making better choices.