

Animal Behavior and Communication Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding How Animals Live and Communicate

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about animal behavior and communication.

1. What type of behavior do animals inherit that helps them survive?

- A. Learned behaviors
- B. Instinctive behaviors
- C. Communication behaviors

2. Explain one way animals communicate with each other. Give an example.

3. Learned behaviors are skills that animals are born with.

- True False

4. Bees communicate the location of food through a special ____ dance.

5. Why do some animals migrate?

- A. To find food
- B. To escape from predators
- C. Both A and B

6. What did Proverbs 6:6-8 teach us about the ant's behavior?

7. All animal behaviors are instinctive and cannot be learned.

- True False

8. God's design in animal behaviors shows great ____ and purpose.

9. What is one method of animal communication mentioned in the lesson?

- A. Chemical signals
- B. Writing
- C. Reading

10. What surprised you most about animal communication?

Answer Key

1. Instinctive behaviors 2. Animals can communicate through sounds, like birds singing to attract mates. 3. False 4. waggle 5. Both A and B 6. It teaches us that ants gather food wisely without needing a leader, showing instinctive behavior. 7. False 8. wisdom 9. Chemical signals 10. I was surprised to learn how animals use different methods like sounds and movements to talk to each other.