

Science Fair Showcase Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Presentation Skills and the Scientific Process

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the Science Fair Showcase lesson.

1. What makes a great scientific presentation? List at least two key points.

2. According to Proverbs 22:29, what will happen to a man skilled in his work?

- A. He will be ignored
- B. He will stand before kings
- C. He will be unhappy

3. To present well, you need to prepare and practice your ____.

4. Practicing public speaking is not important for a scientific presentation.

- True False

5. What did you learn about the scientific process while working on your project? Provide one example.

6. How can you help your audience understand your project?

- A. Use complicated terms
- B. Speak clearly and explain simply
- C. Ignore their questions

7. A confident speaker shows enthusiasm and engages the ____.

8. It is good to review presentation guidelines before presenting.

- True False

9. What is one benefit of presenting at a science fair?

- A. You get to avoid public speaking
- B. You can showcase your hard work
- C. You don't need to prepare

10. What was the most challenging part of your project? Explain why it was challenging.

Answer Key

1. A great presentation is clear and engaging. It also shows confidence. 2. He will stand before kings 3. presentation 4. False 5. I learned that the scientific process involves asking questions and testing them. For example, I tested how plants grow under different lights. 6. Speak clearly and explain simply 7. audience 8. True 9. You can showcase your hard work 10. The most challenging part was conducting the experiments because I had to be very careful and take detailed notes.
