

Review of The Seed of the Woman

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the First Gospel Promise

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the 'Seed of the Woman' from Genesis 3:15.

1. What does the 'seed' refer to in Genesis 3:15?

- A. The first humans
- B. Jesus Christ
- C. The earth

2. How does the prophecy in Genesis 3:15 demonstrate God's love for humanity?

3. Genesis 3:15 is considered the first prophetic promise of Christ's victory over Satan.

- True False

4. In Genesis 3:15, God promises that the woman's seed will bruise the ____ of the serpent.

5. What was the main theme of the lesson on the 'Seed of the Woman'?

- A. The creation of the world
- B. God's redemptive plan
- C. The history of Israel

6. Why is it significant that the promise of the 'seed' is traced through biblical history?

7. The promise of the 'seed' ends with the Old Testament.

- True False

8. The memory verse for this lesson is found in ____ 3:15.

9. How did Adam and Eve likely understand the promise in Genesis 3:15?

- A. As a warning
- B. As a sign of defeat
- C. As a hope for redemption

10. What are some ways that God's preservation of the promise can be seen through the Bible?

Answer Key

1. Jesus Christ 2. The prophecy shows that God had a plan to save humanity from sin through Jesus, showing His love and care for us. 3. True 4. head 5. God's redemptive plan 6. Tracing the promise shows how God preserved His plan for redemption over generations, leading to Jesus' coming. 7. False 8. Genesis 9. As a hope for redemption 10. God preserved the lineage leading to Jesus despite many challenges. The stories of figures like Noah and Abraham show His commitment to the promise.