

Psalm 110: Priest and King Forever

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Royal Psalms

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on your study of Psalm 110.

1. What does Psalm 110 say about Jesus sitting at God's right hand?

- A. He is waiting for His enemies
- B. He is ruling with authority
- C. He is praying for us

2. Why is Jesus considered a unique priest compared to other priests?

3. Psalm 110 reveals that Jesus is a priest forever, like Melchizedek.

- True False

4. God said to the Messiah, 'Sit at my ___ hand, until I make your enemies your footstool.'

5. In what way does Psalm 110 show God's promise of redemption through Christ?

6. How long will the Messiah be a priest according to Psalm 110?

- A. For a short time
- B. Forever
- C. Only during His lifetime

7. The psalm indicates that Jesus will have no authority over His enemies.

- True False

8. Jesus is described as the Root and the ___ of David in Revelation 22:16.

9. What does it mean for Jesus to be at God's right hand?

- A. He is in a position of honor and power
- B. He is resting
- C. He is far away from God

10. What does the title 'bright Morning Star' signify about Jesus?

Answer Key

1. He is ruling with authority 2. Jesus is unique because He is both King and Priest, and He holds this position forever, unlike other priests who serve temporarily. 3. True 4. right 5. Psalm 110 shows God's promise by stating that Jesus will rule and reign, indicating that He has victory over sin and death. 6. Forever 7. False 8. Offspring 9. He is in a position of honor and power 10. The title signifies that Jesus brings hope and light to the world, guiding believers through darkness.