

Review of 'Pierced for Our Transgressions'

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Isaiah's Prophecy about the Messiah

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Isaiah 53 and Jesus' sacrificial death.

1. What does 'pierced for our transgressions' mean in Isaiah 53:5?
 - A. Jesus was hurt for our wrongdoings
 - B. Jesus was happy when he died
 - C. Jesus was ignored by everyone
2. Isaiah 53 teaches us that Jesus was crushed for our ____.
3. What is substitutionary atonement, and why is it important in understanding Jesus' sacrifice?

4. Isaiah 53 describes the Messiah as someone who will not suffer at all.

True False

5. According to the lesson, what was laid on Jesus according to Isaiah 53:6?
 - A. The iniquity of us all
 - B. Our blessings
 - C. The weight of the world

6. How does Jesus' sacrifice demonstrate God's love for us?

7. By His wounds, we are ____.

8. Isaiah 53:5 emphasizes that our peace comes from Jesus' punishment.

True False

9. What surprised you the most about today's lesson?
 - A. The prophecy of Isaiah
 - B. Jesus' miracles
 - C. The creation story

10. What does it mean that 'we all, like sheep, have gone astray' in Isaiah 53:6?

Answer Key

1. Jesus was hurt for our wrongdoings 2. iniquities 3. Substitutionary atonement means that Jesus took our place and bore the punishment for our sins. It is important because it shows how much God loves us by providing a way for us to be forgiven. 4. False 5. The iniquity of us all 6. Jesus' sacrifice shows God's love because He was willing to suffer and die for our sins. This act of love allows us to be forgiven and have a relationship with God. 7. healed 8. True 9. The prophecy of Isaiah 10. It means that everyone has sinned and turned away from God, just like sheep that wander away from their shepherd. We all need guidance and redemption.