

Patriarchal Narratives: Recurring Themes

BibleMouse.com

Review Worksheet for Genesis Deep Dive

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the patriarchal narratives.

1. What did God credit to Abraham as righteousness?

- A. His works
- B. His faith
- C. His wealth

2. How do the stories of Isaac and Jacob demonstrate human weakness?

3. God's covenant remains constant despite human _____.

4. God's grace can overcome human mistakes.

- True False

5. According to Genesis 12:3, who will be blessed?

- A. Only Abraham
- B. Those who bless Abraham
- C. Those who curse Abraham

6. What recurring pattern can you identify in the stories of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob?

7. Abraham showed both faith and _____ when he was uncertain about God's promises.

8. The patriarchal narratives only show perfect characters.

- True False

9. What is one lesson we learn from the patriarchal narratives?

- A. People are perfect
- B. God can use imperfect people
- C. Faith is not important

10. How does God demonstrate His faithfulness in the patriarchal narratives?

Answer Key

1. His faith 2. Isaac and Jacob both made mistakes that showed their doubts and fears. Isaac did not trust God completely and Jacob deceived his father. Yet, God still worked through them. 3. imperfection 4. True 5. Those who bless Abraham 6. A recurring pattern is that even though they faced challenges and made mistakes, God remained faithful to His promises to them. 7. doubt 8. False 9. God can use imperfect people 10. God fulfills His promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob despite their flaws and mistakes, showing that His grace is greater than their weaknesses.