Answer Key

1. Sin 2. Adam's choice to sin affected everyone by bringing death into the world. Because of his actions, all humanity now faces the consequences of sin. This means that everyone has sinned and is separated from God. Adam's sin set a pattern for human behavior. 3. death 4. True 5. Hope 6. Christ's redemption offers salvation by allowing everyone who believes in Him to be forgiven of their sins. This means that even though we all deserve death because of Adam's sin, we can have eternal life through faith in Jesus. For example, when someone accepts Christ, they are made new and no longer face the penalty of sin. 7. sin 8. True 9. Romans 8:28 10. We can see the impact of Adam and Christ in our lives through our choices and their consequences. When we choose to do wrong, we feel guilt and separation from God, just like Adam's sin caused. But when we accept Christ, we experience forgiveness and a close relationship with God, showing His love and grace.
