

Review of Jesus' Messages to the Seven Churches

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Revelation: Jesus Wins!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Jesus' letters to the seven churches.

1. What did Jesus promise to those who overcome, according to Revelation 2:7?

- A. A crown of gold
- B. To eat from the tree of life
- C. Eternal life

2. What are some strengths that Jesus recognized in the churches?

3. Jesus' letters to the seven churches show that He knows their ___ and challenges.

4. Every message to the churches included a call to 'overcome'.

- True False

5. What is one way we can apply Jesus' messages to our personal lives?

- A. Ignore our weaknesses
- B. Focus on our strengths
- C. Work on our spiritual growth

6. How can we 'overcome' in our own spiritual journey?

7. The memory verse from Revelation 1:8 describes God as the ___ and the Omega.

8. Jesus' messages to the churches were only about their weaknesses.

- True False

9. What does the phrase 'He who has an ear, let him hear' suggest in the context of the letters?

- A. Only the leaders should listen
- B. Everyone should pay attention to the messages
- C. The messages are not important

10. Why is it important to understand the messages Jesus gave to the churches?

Answer Key

1. To eat from the tree of life 2. Some churches were strong in faith and love, while others were faithful despite challenges. 3. strengths 4. True 5. Work on our spiritual growth 6. We can overcome by staying faithful to Jesus, praying, and following His teachings. 7. Alpha 8. False 9. Everyone should pay attention to the messages 10. Understanding these messages helps us recognize our own spiritual condition and encourages us to grow in faith.