

Justice and Mercy: A Biblical Response

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding Our Call to Justice and Reconciliation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on our lesson about justice, mercy, and the impact on Native Americans.

1. What does Micah 6:8 teach us about what God requires of us regarding justice and mercy?

---

---

---

2. What is a key principle highlighted in our lesson about how to treat others?

- A. To ignore past wrongs
- B. To act justly and love mercy
- C. To blame others for injustices

3. Repentance involves acknowledging past mistakes.

True       False

4. According to the lesson, reconciliation requires ____ and love.

5. How can we show respect to Native American communities today?

---

---

---

6. Which of the following is NOT a talking point from the lesson?

- A. God values every person's dignity
- B. Reconciliation requires humility and love
- C. We should forget about past injustices

7. Jesus calls us to love only those who are similar to us.

True       False

8. To learn from past mistakes, we must recognize ____ wrongs that were done.

9. What does biblical reconciliation look like according to our discussion?

---

---

---

10. What is the first step toward healing from historical injustices?

- A. Forget about the past
- B. Acknowledge past wrongs
- C. Ignore the feelings of those affected

---

Answer Key

1. Micah 6:8 teaches us that God wants us to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with Him. It shows that our actions should reflect God's character. 2. To act justly and love mercy 3. True 4. humility 5. We can show respect by listening to their stories, acknowledging their history, and supporting their rights and culture. 6. We should forget about past injustices 7. False 8. historical 9. Biblical reconciliation looks like acknowledging wrongs, seeking forgiveness, and working together in love and understanding. 10. Acknowledge past wrongs