

The Slavery Question Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Compromises and Human Dignity

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about slavery and the compromises in U.S. history.

1. What was the purpose of the Missouri Compromise?

- A. To end slavery
- B. To balance free and slave states
- C. To expand territories

2. Explain the significance of Galatians 3:28 in relation to the topic of slavery.

---

---

---

3. The Compromise of 1850 was an attempt to balance the number of ___ and ___ states.

4. Both the Missouri Compromise and the Compromise of 1850 were permanent solutions to the issue of slavery.

- True       False

5. Which of the following was a challenge created by westward expansion in the U.S.?

- A. More land for agriculture
- B. Disagreement on slavery in new territories
- C. Increased trade opportunities

6. Why do you think some compromises can be harmful, even if they are meant to solve a problem?

---

---

---

7. The ___ and ___ created new challenges about the expansion of slavery.

8. The lesson suggests that Christians should support the idea of owning another person.

- True       False

9. What does it mean to treat all people with respect today?

- A. Ignoring their differences
- B. Valuing them as equals
- C. Only helping those who are similar to us

10. Why do you think people disagreed about slavery in the past?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To balance free and slave states    2. Galatians 3:28 shows that all people are equal in Christ, regardless of their social status, including slaves. This verse emphasizes the importance of treating everyone with dignity and respect.    3. free, slave    4. False    5. Disagreement on slavery in new territories    6. Some compromises can be harmful if they ignore important moral issues or if they only benefit one group over another. This can lead to greater conflict later on. 7. Missouri Compromise, Compromise of 1850 8. False 9. Valuing them as equals 10. People disagreed about slavery because of differing beliefs regarding human rights, economic benefits, and cultural values. Some saw it as a necessary practice, while others viewed it as morally wrong.