

Voices of the Enslaved Review

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding the Experiences of Enslaved People

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the lesson about the voices of enslaved individuals.

1. What is a slave narrative?

- A. A fictional story
- B. A first-hand account of slavery
- C. A historical novel

2. Why are personal stories important in understanding history?

---

---

---

3. Frederick Douglass is known for sharing his experience as an enslaved person.

- True       False

4. The scripture Galatians 3:28 teaches that there is neither ____ nor free, for we are all one in Christ Jesus.

5. What does sharing difficult experiences help to prevent?

- A. Future injustices
- B. More stories
- C. Historical confusion

6. How can we show respect to people with different experiences?

---

---

---

7. Slave narratives only tell about the physical hardships of enslaved people.

- True       False

8. Each person's story demonstrates human ____ and the will to overcome challenges.

9. What is one effect of reading slave narratives?

- A. They make history less important
- B. They help us understand historical experiences
- C. They are only for entertainment

10. What was most surprising in today's lesson?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. A first-hand account of slavery 2. Personal stories provide insight into real experiences and emotions, making history more relatable and impactful. 3. True 4. slave 5. Future injustices 6. We can listen to their stories, treat them with kindness, and acknowledge their experiences as valuable. 7. False 8. resilience 9. They help us understand historical experiences 10. I was surprised by how brave people were to share their stories despite the risks they faced.