

Understanding the Civil War: North and South

BibleMouse.com

Review of Comparative Advantages

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the advantages of the North and South during the Civil War.

1. What was the biggest advantage for the North?

- A. Agricultural resources
- B. Population
- C. Military leadership

2. What strengths did the South have in the Civil War?

3. The North had ___% of the manufacturing capabilities in the country.

4. The Union had a smaller population than the Confederacy.

- True False

5. How might having more factories help an army?

- A. They could make more food
- B. They could produce more weapons
- C. They could train more soldiers

6. Why do you think resources matter in a war?

7. The South's population was about ___ million.

8. Both sides had talented military leaders.

- True False

9. What challenges might the smaller population face during the war?

10. What scripture verse connects to the importance of guidance and resources in conflict?

- A. James 1:5
- B. Proverbs 24:6
- C. Ephesians 6:10

Answer Key

1. 1 2. The South had a strong agricultural economy and talented military leaders. 3. 90 4. False 5. They could produce more weapons 6. Resources matter because they determine how well an army can supply its soldiers and sustain a long conflict. 7. 9 8. True 9. A smaller population means fewer soldiers to fight, which can impact the army's strength and ability to replace casualties. 10. Proverbs 24:6