

Review of Grant and Lee at Appomattox

BibleMouse.com

---

Understanding the Significance of Reconciliation

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Lee's surrender at Appomattox.

1. What date did Lee surrender to Grant at Appomattox?

- A. April 9, 1865
- B. April 12, 1865
- C. March 9, 1865

2. How did Lee and Grant demonstrate respect for each other during the surrender?

---

---

---

3. Grant offered harsh terms to the Confederate soldiers after the surrender.

- True       False

4. The surrender at Appomattox began the process of ____ for the nation.

5. What principle from the Bible relates to the idea of reconciliation after conflict?

- A. Love your neighbor
- B. Blessed are the peacemakers
- C. Forgive and forget

6. Why is forgiveness important after a conflict, according to the lesson?

---

---

---

7. The generals' approach during the surrender reflected Christian principles of mercy and respect.

- True       False

8. Matthew 5:9 teaches that peacemakers will be called ____ of God.

9. What was one of the generous terms Grant offered to the Confederate soldiers?

- A. To allow them to keep their weapons
- B. To give them money for food
- C. To let them go back home immediately

10. How can we apply the principles of reconciliation from this lesson to our own disagreements?

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. April 9, 1865 2. They treated each other with courtesy and recognized each other's efforts during the war. 3. False 4. healing 5. Blessed are the peacemakers 6. Forgiveness helps to heal relationships and allows both sides to move forward positively. 7. True 8. children 9. To allow them to keep their weapons 10. We can approach our conflicts with kindness and a willingness to forgive, just as Lee and Grant did.