

Freedmen's Bureau and New Beginnings

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Reconstruction and Equality

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about the Freedmen's Bureau and its impact on formerly enslaved people.

1. What was the main purpose of the Freedmen's Bureau?

- A. To provide education and support to formerly enslaved people
- B. To enforce laws for slave owners
- C. To create new laws for the government

2. Why was education so important for newly freed people during Reconstruction?

---

---

---

3. The Freedmen's Bureau was created to help formerly enslaved people become full citizens.

- True       False

4. The Freedmen's Bureau helped provide ____, job training, and medical care for newly freed people.

5. Which of the following was a challenge faced by the Freedmen's Bureau?

- A. Lack of funding
- B. Too many workers
- C. Full support from the government

6. According to Galatians 3:28, what does God say about human equality?

---

---

---

7. The Freedmen's Bureau only focused on education and did not provide any medical care.

- True       False

8. Micah 6:8 teaches us to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with your ____.

9. How can we show God's love to people facing challenges?

- A. Ignore their problems
- B. Help them find resources and support
- C. Tell them to be strong

10. What are some ways you might help someone starting a new life with few resources?

---

---

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. To provide education and support to formerly enslaved people 2. Education was important because it helped them learn skills for jobs and understand their rights as citizens. It was a way to empower them and help them build a better future. 3. True 4. education 5. Lack of funding 6. God says that there is no distinction between people based on their background or status. Everyone is equal and one in Christ Jesus, which emphasizes the importance of treating everyone with dignity. 7. False 8. God 9. Help them find resources and support 10. I could help them by sharing food, teaching them skills, or connecting them with people who can provide support. It's important to show kindness and understanding to those in need.