

Waves of Newcomers Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Immigration and the American Dream

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about immigration in the late 1800s and early 1900s.

1. What were some reasons people immigrated to the United States during the late 1800s and early 1900s?

- A. Economic opportunities
- B. Political stability
- C. Access to education

2. What did Acts 17:26 teach us about diversity and human connection?

3. Many immigrants came from Europe, Asia, and ____ during this period.

4. Most immigrants came to America seeking religious freedom and economic opportunities.

- True False

5. Which of the following groups immigrated to the U.S. in significant numbers during this time?

- A. Irish
- B. Indian
- C. Brazilian

6. Describe one challenge immigrants faced when arriving in the United States.

7. Leviticus 19:34 encourages us to love the ____ who lives among us as ourselves.

8. Immigrants only faced challenges and had no hope for a better future in America.

- True False

9. How can we show God's love to newcomers?

- A. By ignoring them
- B. By welcoming and helping them
- C. By being indifferent

10. Why do you think it is important to understand the experiences of immigrants?

Answer Key

1. Economic opportunities 2. It teaches that God created all nations from one blood, showing that we are all connected and share the same humanity. 3. other regions 4. True 5. Irish 6. One challenge was finding jobs, as many immigrants had to compete for limited opportunities and often faced discrimination. 7. stranger 8. False 9. By welcoming and helping them 10. It's important because it helps us empathize with their struggles and appreciate the diversity they bring to our communities.