

The Nuclear Arms Race

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Cold War

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the nuclear arms race.

1. What was the main reason countries built so many nuclear weapons during the Cold War?

- A. To promote peace
- B. Out of fear and desire for power
- C. To protect their citizens

2. Explain how fear influenced the actions of the United States and the Soviet Union during the nuclear arms race.

3. Nuclear weapons were seen as a way to promote peace during the Cold War.

- True False

4. According to Matthew 5:9, blessed are the ____ for they shall be called children of God.

5. What are some better ways to solve conflicts instead of building weapons?

6. Which of the following was a key effect of the nuclear arms race?

- A. Increased global cooperation
- B. Constant fear of nuclear war
- C. Reduction in military spending

7. The nuclear arms race led to a safer world for everyone.

- True False

8. The lesson emphasizes the importance of ____ conflict resolution.

9. Why is peaceful resolution important in today's world?

10. What was one of the main feelings people had about the world during the nuclear arms race?

- A. Excitement for new technology
- B. Constant fear
- C. Hope for peace

Answer Key

1. Out of fear and desire for power 2. Fear led both countries to build more weapons to show strength. They worried about each other's power and wanted to be prepared for any conflict. 3. False 4. peacemakers 5. Some better ways include talking things out, using diplomacy, and working together to find solutions. 6. Constant fear of nuclear war 7. False 8. peaceful 9. Peaceful resolution is important because it helps prevent wars and supports a stable and safe environment for everyone. 10. Constant fear