

Review of the Interstate Highway System

BibleMouse.com

Understanding 1950s America

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the Interstate Highway System.

1. What inspired President Eisenhower's vision for the Interstate Highway System?

- A. Civilian needs
- B. Military transportation needs
- C. Economic growth

2. How did the Interstate Highway System enable faster and safer travel?

3. The Interstate Highway System only served military purposes and did not benefit civilians.

- True False

4. The Interstate Highway System connected cities and ____ areas.

5. What was one major benefit of the Interstate Highway System for communities?

- A. Isolation of rural areas
- B. Increased travel time
- C. Easier access to services

6. Why was fast transportation important in the 1950s?

7. The Interstate Highway System helped support economic growth in the United States.

- True False

8. Proverbs 22:29 teaches us that skilled work can lead to standing before ____ men.

9. How do roads help spread the Gospel according to the lesson?

- A. By isolating communities
- B. By connecting communities and allowing for travel
- C. By making travel more difficult

10. What was unique about the Interstate Highway System compared to previous roads?

Answer Key

1. Military transportation needs 2. The highways provided smoother roads and better routes, reducing travel time and accidents, making it safer for everyone. 3. False 4. rural 5. Easier access to services 6. Fast transportation was crucial because it helped people travel for work and leisure, and it supported the growing economy by making trade and movement easier. 7. True 8. kings 9. By connecting communities and allowing for travel 10. The Interstate Highway System was designed for high-speed travel and safety, featuring multiple lanes and fewer intersections, which made it a groundbreaking development in transportation.