

Rock and Roll Revolution Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding 1950s Music and Culture

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about rock and roll in the 1950s.

1. What musical influences combined to create rock and roll?

- A. Blues, country, and gospel
- B. Jazz, classical, and folk
- C. Pop, rock, and hip-hop

2. Elvis Presley was a key artist in the rock and roll movement of the 1950s.

- True False

3. How did rock and roll challenge social norms in the 1950s?

4. Rock and roll served as a form of ____ expression for young people in the 1950s.

5. Why do you think music can bring people together?

6. What does Psalm 33:3 encourage us to do?

- A. Sing old songs
- B. Create new songs
- C. Only listen to music

7. The 1950s was a time of conformity with little room for new ideas in music.

- True False

8. Rock and roll music emerged in the ____ as a reflection of social changes.

9. What surprised you about 1950s music based on the lesson?

10. Which of the following was a discussion question in the lesson?

- A. What is your favorite song?
- B. How can music bring people together?
- C. Who is the best musician ever?

Answer Key

1. Blues, country, and gospel 2. True 3. Rock and roll challenged social norms by encouraging youth to express themselves and break away from traditional values. 4. cultural 5. Music brings people together because it creates a shared experience and emotions that everyone can relate to. 6. Create new songs 7. False 8. 1950s 9. I was surprised to learn how rock and roll combined different musical styles and how it represented the feelings of the youth. 10. How can music bring people together?