

Review of Brown v. Board of Education

BibleMouse.com

Understanding the Impact of Equal Rights in Education

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about Brown v. Board of Education.

1. What did the Brown v. Board of Education decision declare?

- A. School segregation is legal
- B. School segregation is unconstitutional
- C. All students must wear uniforms

2. Why is it important that all children have equal access to education?

3. Thurgood Marshall was the lawyer who led the ___ case.

4. The decision of Brown v. Board of Education was a turning point in the Civil Rights Movement.

- True False

5. What does Galatians 3:28 teach us about people?

- A. Some people are more valuable than others
- B. All people are equally valuable in God's eyes
- C. Education is only for certain groups

6. How can we show love to people who are different from us?

7. The phrase 'separate educational facilities are inherently ___' was part of the Brown v. Board decision.

8. Segregation only affected Black students and had no impact on white students.

- True False

9. What did Micah 6:8 require of us in relation to justice?

- A. To act justly and love mercy
- B. To ignore unfairness
- C. To only help our friends

10. Why was the Brown v. Board case significant in terms of challenging systemic injustice?

Answer Key

1. School segregation is unconstitutional 2. It is important because education helps children grow and succeed. Everyone deserves the same opportunities regardless of their background. 3. Brown v. Board of Education 4. True 5. All people are equally valuable in God's eyes 6. We can show love by treating everyone with respect, listening to their stories, and including them in our activities. 7.

unequal 8. False 9. To act justly and love mercy 10. It was significant because it showed that laws supporting segregation were unfair and helped to change the way people thought about education and equality.