

Justice, Mercy, and Humility Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Micah 6:8

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about justice, mercy, and humility.

1. What does Micah 6:8 require us to do?

- A. Seek fame
- B. Do justly
- C. Earn money

2. How can you show justice in your daily life? Give one example.

3. Mercy means showing ___ and understanding to others.

4. Humility involves thinking that you know everything.

- True False

5. Why is humility important when discussing difficult topics like racial inequality?

6. Which of the following is a principle that supports racial reconciliation?

- A. Justice
- B. Wealth
- C. Isolation

7. Showing mercy means being harsh and unkind.

- True False

8. We are called to ___ mercy and walk humbly with our God.

9. What is one way you can apply Micah 6:8 to a social challenge you see today?

10. Which of the following describes justice?

- A. Treating people unfairly
- B. Treating all people fairly
- C. Ignoring people's needs

Answer Key

1. Do justly 2. I can show justice by treating everyone fairly and standing up for those who are treated unfairly. 3. compassion 4. False 5. Humility helps us listen to others and learn from their experiences, making it easier to have important conversations. 6. Justice 7. False 8. love 9. I can support efforts to help homeless people by volunteering or donating to local shelters. 10. Treating all people fairly