

The Vietnam War Divides America

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Different Perspectives on Conflict

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about the Vietnam War.

1. What is one perspective discussed in the lesson regarding the Vietnam War?

- A. American soldiers
- B. Fictional characters
- C. Space explorers

2. Why is it important to understand different viewpoints in a conflict like the Vietnam War?

3. The lesson encourages seeking peace in difficult situations.

- True False

4. According to Matthew 5:9, blessed are the ____ for they shall be called children of God.

5. What does being a peacemaker involve?

- A. Ignoring problems
- B. Creating understanding among people
- C. Taking sides in a conflict

6. How might Jesus want us to respond to conflict based on the lesson?

7. The Vietnam War only affected American soldiers and not civilians.

- True False

8. The lesson discusses the importance of showing ____ to people we might disagree with.

9. What was one activity suggested in the lesson to explore different perspectives?

- A. Writing a story
- B. Creating a multi-perspective timeline
- C. Drawing pictures of soldiers

10. What surprised you about the different perspectives on the Vietnam War?

Answer Key

1. American soldiers 2. Understanding different viewpoints helps us see the whole picture and fosters compassion for those involved. 3. True 4. peacemakers 5. Creating understanding among people 6. Jesus would want us to respond with love and understanding, striving to create peace rather than contributing to division. 7. False 8. love 9. Creating a multi-perspective timeline 10. I was surprised to learn about how both soldiers and civilians experienced the war in very different ways, which made me think about the complexity of conflicts.