

Geography and Civics Review

BibleMouse.com

Year in Review and Celebration

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about US geography and civic principles this year.

1. What was your favorite thing you learned about US geography this year? Explain why it was your favorite.

2. Which of the following is a responsibility of citizens?

- A. Voting in elections
- B. Traveling abroad
- C. Collecting stamps

3. Understanding geography helps us appreciate God's creation.

True False

4. The United States has geographic regions that include the ____, the South, and the West.

5. How can we use our knowledge to be good citizens? Provide an example.

6. What does Proverbs 22:3 teach us about being prudent?

- A. To ignore danger
- B. To recognize and avoid danger
- C. To take unnecessary risks

7. Civic participation is not important for a healthy democracy.

True False

8. According to Romans 13:1, all authority is ____ by God.

9. What surprised you most about our country's regions? Choose the most surprising fact you learned.

- A. The variety of landscapes
- B. The number of states
- C. The population size

10. Why is it important for Christians to understand civic responsibilities? Give your thoughts.

Answer Key

1. I loved learning about the different climates in the US because it showed how diverse our country is. 2. Voting in elections 3. True 4. Northeast 5. We can use our knowledge to help our community by participating in local events and voting for leaders who make wise decisions. 6. To recognize and avoid danger 7. False 8. ordained 9. The variety of landscapes 10. It's important because we are called to serve others and make decisions that align with our faith and values.