

Understanding Narrative Structure

BibleMouse.com

Review of Story Spine Secrets

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about narrative structure.

1. What are the five parts of a story spine?

2. The climax of a story is the part where the tension is at its highest.

True False

3. What does the exposition in a story introduce?

- A. The conflict
- B. The characters and setting
- C. The resolution

4. In Joseph's story, the ____ is when he is sold into slavery by his brothers.

5. Why is understanding story structure important for creating engaging narratives?

6. What part of the story shows the consequences of the climax?

- A. Falling action
- B. Rising action
- C. Exposition

7. Falling action includes the main events that lead up to the resolution.

True False

8. Joseph's story is an example of a biblical narrative that demonstrates the use of story ____ to convey its message.

9. How does Joseph's story illustrate the rising action in a narrative?

10. What does the resolution of a story provide?

- A. The introduction of characters
- B. The final outcome
- C. The rising tension

Answer Key

1. The five parts are exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. 2. True 3. The characters and setting 4. climax 5. Understanding story structure helps writers build tension and connect with readers, making the story more interesting. 6. Falling action 7. False 8. structure 9. Joseph faces conflict with his brothers, which builds tension leading up to the climax when he is sold. 10. The final outcome

