

Setting the Scene Like a Master

BibleMouse.com

Review Worksheet for Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about crafting compelling stories using sensory details.

1. What is one of the objectives of the lesson?

- A. Use sensory details to create vivid settings
- B. Write poems about nature
- C. Summarize biblical stories

2. The tree of life was located in the ____ of the garden.

3. How do sensory details help readers connect with a story? Provide an example.

4. The Garden of Eden is described as having trees that are pleasant to the sight.

- True False

5. Which sense is NOT mentioned in the lesson?

- A. Sight
- B. Touch
- C. Emotion

6. In Psalm 104:24, it mentions that the earth is full of your ____ .

7. Describe how the Garden of Eden might feel different from a desert.

8. Sensory details can create different emotional responses.

- True False

9. What rich descriptive language did biblical writers often use?

- A. Technical descriptions
- B. Sensory details
- C. Simple statements

10. What was the most challenging sense for you to describe in your writing? Why?

Answer Key

1. Use sensory details to create vivid settings 2. middle 3. Sensory details engage the reader's imagination and feelings. For example, describing the sweet smell of flowers can make the reader feel relaxed. 4. True 5. Emotion 6. creatures 7. The Garden of Eden would feel lush and vibrant, full of life, while a desert feels dry and barren. The garden is likely cool and inviting, while the desert is hot and harsh. 8. True 9. Sensory details 10. The sense of taste was challenging for me because I had to think about flavors and how to express them in words.