

Plot Twist Workshop Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Narrative Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned in the Plot Twist Workshop.

1. What surprised you about planning your story? Give a specific example.

2. What is the purpose of a story map?

- A. To create a character list
- B. To plan the structure of a narrative
- C. To write a conclusion

3. A meaningful life moment can provide a strong ___ for your narrative.

4. Planning your story can help improve your writing.

- True False

5. What story element was most challenging for you to develop, and why?

6. Which of the following is a key part of character development?

- A. Describing their appearance
- B. Showing their emotional growth
- C. Listing their hobbies

7. In narrative writing, using ___ details can help the reader imagine the story better.

8. Proverbs 16:9 teaches that while we can plan our stories, God guides our lives.

- True False

9. What can you do to make your personal story more interesting?

- A. Add more characters
- B. Use descriptive language
- C. Make it longer

10. How can we show character change in our writing? Provide an example.

Answer Key

1. I was surprised by how much detail I could include in my story map. For example, I didn't realize how important sensory details would be. 2. 1 3. foundation 4. True 5. The most challenging element for me was the central conflict because I had to think deeply about what was at stake for my character. 6. 1 7. sensory 8. True 9. 1 10. We can show character change by highlighting their decisions and how they react to challenges. For example, a character who starts out scared might become brave by the end of the story.