

Future Perfect Forecasters Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Future Perfect Tense and God's Promises

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson content about future perfect tense and biblical connections.

1. What is the structure of a future perfect tense verb phrase?

- A. will have + past participle
- B. will + verb
- C. have + verb

2. How does the future perfect tense help us describe biblical promises?

3. The future perfect tense is used to describe actions that will happen in the past.

- True False

4. The future perfect tense is formed with '____ have' and the past participle.

5. What is one example of a promise God has made that will be fulfilled?

6. How is future perfect tense different from simple future?

- A. Future perfect shows completed actions, while simple future shows actions that will happen.
- B. Future perfect is only used in questions, while simple future is not.
- C. There is no difference.

7. Future perfect tense can be used to describe personal spiritual goals.

- True False

8. A verb in future perfect tense indicates an action that will be ____ before another future action.

9. How might prophets describe future events using future perfect tense?

10. Which of the following is a correct example of future perfect tense?

- A. I will eat dinner.
- B. I will have finished my homework.
- C. I will going to the store.

Answer Key

1. will have + past participle 2. It allows us to show that certain events will be completed before a future time, like God's promises being fulfilled. 3. False 4. will 5. God promised to give us hope and a future, as stated in Jeremiah 29:11. 6. Future perfect shows completed actions, while simple future shows actions that will happen. 7. True 8. completed 9. Prophets might say, 'God will have fulfilled His promises by the time the Messiah comes.' 10. I will have finished my homework.
