

Citation Station Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Research and Giving Credit

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about citation practices and the importance of giving credit to authors.

1. What is plagiarism?

- A. Giving credit to authors
- B. Using someone else's work without permission
- C. Creating your own ideas

2. Why is it important to give credit to authors?

---

---

3. Citations are only important in academic writing.

- True       False

4. Plagiarism is using someone's words or ideas without giving ____.

5. What does citing sources help readers do?

- A. Find original sources
- B. Make up their own ideas
- C. Ignore the authors' work

6. How would you feel if someone used your work without asking?

---

---

---

7. Citing sources is a way to show respect for other people's ideas.

- True       False

8. The Bible verse Proverbs 11:3 teaches us about the importance of ____ in our actions.

9. What might happen if you don't cite your sources?

- A. You will get a good grade
- B. You could be accused of plagiarism
- C. Your work will be recognized

10. What is one principle of ethical research practices you learned?

---

---

---

Answer Key

1. Using someone else's work without permission 2. It shows respect for their hard work and helps others find the original sources. 3. False 4. credit 5. Find original sources 6. I would feel upset because my hard work is not being recognized and respected. 7. True 8. integrity 9. You could be accused of plagiarism 10. One principle is that we should always give credit to the authors of the information we use.