

Review of Correlative Conjunctions

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Either/Or and Neither/Nor

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson about correlative conjunctions.

1. What do correlative conjunctions connect?

- A. Different ideas
- B. Equal grammatical elements
- C. Irrelevant details

2. Why is subject-verb agreement important when using either/or and neither/nor?

3. The verse from Colossians teaches us to let our speech be with _____, seasoned with salt.

4. Either/or and neither/nor can help make writing clearer.

- True False

5. Which sentence uses either/or correctly?

- A. I will either go to the park or stay home.
- B. Either I enjoy soccer or basketball.
- C. Neither the cat or the dog is here.

6. Create a sentence using neither/nor that shows a choice. What does your sentence mean?

7. In Proverbs 10:19, it mentions that in the multitude of words there is no lack of _____, but he who restrains his lips does wisely.

8. Correlative conjunctions are only used in formal writing.

- True False

9. What is one benefit of using correlative conjunctions in writing?

- A. They make sentences longer
- B. They help us connect ideas clearly
- C. They are rarely used in English

10. How can using conjunctions like either/or and neither/nor improve communication?

Answer Key

1. Equal grammatical elements 2. Because the verb must match the subject that is closer to it, ensuring clarity in the sentence. 3. grace 4. True 5. I will either go to the park or stay home. 6. Neither the apples nor the oranges were ripe. This means that both fruits were not ready to eat. 7. disobedience 8. False 9. They help us connect ideas clearly 10. They allow us to present choices and comparisons clearly, making it easier for the reader to understand our message.