

Both/And Builders Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Correlative Conjunctions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on the lesson content about both/and conjunctions.

1. What do both/and conjunctions help us to do?

- A. Combine similar ideas
- B. Separate ideas
- C. Create simple sentences

2. How can we use both/and to describe someone's character? Provide an example.

3. Both/and conjunctions can only be used to describe negative qualities.

- True False

4. Philippians 4:8 encourages us to think about things that are ____ and ____.

5. Which of the following is an example of a both/and construction?

- A. She is smart or funny.
- B. He is both brave and strong.
- C. They are neither sad nor happy.

6. Why is it important to use both/and conjunctions when talking about God's character?

7. Using both/and conjunctions can make our sentences more interesting.

- True False

8. Both/and conjunctions can help us create more ____ and interesting sentences.

9. What is a positive quality mentioned in Philippians 4:8?

- A. Dishonorable
- B. Lovely
- C. Angry

10. What did you learn about both/and conjunctions in this lesson?

Answer Key

1. Combine similar ideas 2. We can say someone is both kind and generous, showing two positive qualities. 3. False 4. true, honorable 5. He is both brave and strong. 6. It helps us appreciate the complexity of His nature by highlighting multiple qualities. 7. True 8. complex 9. Lovely 10. I learned that both/and conjunctions help connect ideas and describe people more fully.