

Body Paragraph Structure Review

BibleMouse.com

Understanding Effective Writing

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions based on what you learned about body paragraphs.

1. What is the purpose of a topic sentence?

- A. To introduce the main idea
- B. To summarize the paragraph
- C. To provide a conclusion

2. Explain how you can choose good evidence for your body paragraph. What should it relate to?

3. A body paragraph needs a clear ____ sentence that states the main idea.

4. Supporting evidence is not necessary in a body paragraph.

- True False

5. Which part of a body paragraph connects the evidence to the main point?

- A. Explanation
- B. Topic sentence
- C. Transition

6. Why is it important to have transitions between paragraphs?

7. Strong evidence can include facts, examples, and ____.

8. A well-structured body paragraph can help readers understand your topic better.

- True False

9. What does the memory verse from Proverbs 24:3 teach us about building our writing?

- A. Writing needs a strong foundation
- B. Writing is not important
- C. Only the conclusion matters

10. Describe how you can organize your body paragraph using a graphic organizer.

Answer Key

1. To introduce the main idea 2. Good evidence should support the main idea in the topic sentence and be relevant to the topic being discussed. 3. topic 4. False 5. Explanation 6. Transitions help guide the reader from one idea to the next, making the writing flow better and easier to understand. 7. details 8. True 9. Writing needs a strong foundation 10. A graphic organizer helps by allowing me to outline my topic sentence, list my evidence, and provide explanations clearly before writing the final paragraph.